

Oakton Stake Song Approval Guidelines

These are only guidelines and are subject to change and different interpretations. Please do not submit songs that obviously do not comply with these guidelines. These guidelines may be changed at any time with or without notice.

Songs that are played at stake dances should not include the following

- Drug references
- Any sort of sexual references expressed or implied
- Curse/swear words (even ones permitted in radio play)
- You can still determine curse word said from edited version
 - Terms or slang terms for actions not permitted by church, expressed or implied
- Description of violent acts or Glorification of violence
 - Song has explicit tag
 - Racism or Sexism
 - Weapons references

Musicality of a song should comply with these

- Song is obviously not danceable nor singable (classical music)
- Song is not uplifting or is not appropriate for the atmosphere of a church event (death metal)
